

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A focusing method for a zoom lens system, including at least two lens groups, enables a portion of the zoom lens system to function as a focusing lens group over the entire focal length constituted by discrete focal length ranges. The portion of the zoom lens system, functioning as the focusing lens group, is changed to another portion thereof, in accordance with to the discrete focal length ranges.